

PRESIDENT-ELECT ESCAPES WRECK

Train Ahead of That in Which Mr. Wilson Was Seated Breaks Rail.

A GAP OF TEN INCHES.

Track Walker Makes Discovery and Flags Train Before Next Execu- tive in Time to Prevent Accident.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 28.—President-elect Wilson missed what might have been a serious wreck by five minutes this morning when a broken rail was discovered just ahead of the Pennsylvania train on which he was traveling from Princeton to Philadelphia to visit his dentist for the last time before inauguration.

The train immediately ahead of Wilson's broke a rail in front of the station at Tacony, Pa., a few miles above Philadelphia. It passed over safely, having split out a piece of rail ten inches long where two rails were joined. The broken end of one rail was held in place by the connecting plates.

Five minutes before the arrival of Wilson's train, which was not scheduled to stop, a track-walker found the break. Wilson's train was flagged and held up forty minutes, finally being transferred to the freight track on the inside and brought to Philadelphia.

Governor Wilson rushed from the train at West Philadelphia and took a taxi to reach his dentist, already being ten minutes late for his engagement.

This afternoon the president-elect planned to go to New York for one more evening at the theatre before going to Washington.

CHANGES IN POSTAL HOURS.

Riley Eight Hour Law Goes into Ef- fect Here Tomorrow.

Commencing tomorrow, the entire force of the Alexandria postoffice will be put on a revised schedule of working hours in conformity with the Riley eight-hour law passed last summer, which forbids the compulsory working of any United States postal employ-more than eight hours in twenty-four, and provides further that these eight hours shall fall within a ten hour period.

The eight hour law is practically in effect in the Alexandria postoffice for a number of years but the eight hours' work performed by each employe has been distributed throughout the twenty-four hours in the day so as to afford the best service to the public with the fewest number of men.

There will be no additional employees at the postoffice carry out the provisions of the act but the two substitute clerks will be given additional work.

PARCELS BY SPECIAL DELIVERY.

Executive Order Makes Further Im- provement in New Mail Service.

Under the new order promulgated yesterday, by Postmaster-General Hitchcock, parcel post packages are admitted to special delivery privileges upon the payment of the regular fee of 10 cents that has hitherto applied to first-class matter. The order is at-ready in effect, although no notice has as yet been received at the Alexandria postoffice.

The important provision to bear in mind in connection with the new service, is that parcel post stamps will not be accepted in lieu of the special delivery stamp that is sold for the purpose. A parcel intended to be forwarded by special delivery must bear the distinctive parcel post stamp for carriage to its destination, and in addition must bear either the regular 10-cent special delivery stamp or ordinary postage stamps of the same value.

The special delivery rate is the same for all parcels, regardless of weight or destination.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Indiana Senate has passed the House Corrupt Practices Act bill which makes it a crime in Indiana for a newspaper to publish "any article or cartoon" tending "to expose to ridicule, hatred or contempt" any person at any election. The measure provides a fine of from $300 to $1,000 and imprisonment for not more than a year for each offense.

Four persons perished, many were injured, and property valued at several hundred thousand dollars damaged by a severe wind and rainstorm which swept Alabama, Georgia and Florida yesterday. The only known fatalities occurred at Omaha, Ga., where three negroes were killed when a building collapsed and in Crenshaw county, Ala., where Rufus Sumerlin was killed in a building which was blown down.
Greatest property damage in Georgia was in the southern section of the State. At Milledgeville, Ga., many buildings were demolished. Twelve women prisoners were injured when a State prison structure collapsed. The damage in Florida, according to late reports, was not serious. A 65-mile an-hour gale swept a portion of the State.

President-elect Wilson's last active day as governor of New Jersey was devoted chiefly to a conference with his running mate, Vice-president-elect Thomas R. Marshall, of Indiana. The two were closeted for three hours, and in that period discussed the policies of the coming administration, the make-up in the cabinet, and in a general way the organization of the Senate and House. The President-elect announces that he will consult Mr.
Marshall in the course of his administration on all important affairs of state. The President-elect has not given any serious thought as yet to the question of inviting the Vice-President to cabinet meetings, but it is thought likely Mr. Marshall will become a regular attendant at such meetings.

Happiness and excitement killed Marcellina Leon, of Los Angeles, Cal., said to be 105 years old, after she had shown strength of mind and body sufficient to win her way and obtain the consent of the courts to marry, the man who for fifty years had been her sweetheart. She is dead at her home after being a bride for but five days. Relatives opposed her marriage to Pleasantino Leon, 82 years old. She fought them in the courts, obtained the dismissal of her niece as guardian and established her competency to do as she chose, but shortly after her marriage she collapsed.

The high school building at West Orange, N. J., caught fire last night its auditorium on the third floor contained 200 persons attending a tuberculosis exhibit of the State board of health. A woman's scream precipitated a panic. Three persons leaped from windows to the street and were injured. Others were hurt by being trampled upon when the audience ran and tumbled down stairways filled with smoke. Every person escaped, so far as is known. The building was destroyed, with a loss of $75,000.

Threatened sale of the property of General Daniel E. Sickles, the civil war veteran, to satisfy judgments was forestalled last night in New York, when a sheriff's jury held that the general's wife, who came to her husband's aid in his financial difficulties, has rightful claim upon the contents of the soldier's Fifth Avenue mansion.
Mrs. Sickles' claim is on a chattel mortgage for $13,000. The jury's action nullifies the scheduled sale of March 7 under outside judgments.

Turkey has at last signified her readiness to negotiate for peace with Bulgaria on the basis of the cession of Adrianople. The Turkish government has solicited the good offices of Russia. The Russian government transmitted to the Bulgarian government a message received from Constantinople containing the Turkish proposals for fresh negotiations. Russia will not support Bulgaria's demand for a war indemnity from Turkey.

HIKERS REACH CAPITAL CITY

Angry as a Hive of Bees to Get Even With Miss Paul.

TELEGRAM OF SUPPORT

Campaign Against Votes for Women to be Inaugurated This Evening by Mass Meeting.

"General" Rosalie Jones and her hiking suffragettes, entered the National Capital shortly after eleven o'clock today—angry as a hive of bees and determined to "get even" with Miss Alice Paul, in charge of the Washington suffrage headquarters, for Miss Paul's insistence that she and not the "hikers" should deliver the votes for women petition to President Wilson.

Also, the hikers were mad because Miss Paul wanted them to walk down back streets en route to suffrage headquarters, and not parade their travel-stained garments down Pennsylvania Avenue.

A "rest" stop was taken at 8th and Maryland Avenue, while "General" Jones and her confederates debated the line of march and the future conduct of the "hikers." "General" Jones said she had received a telegram from national officers of the suffrage organization supporting the "hikers" plea that they be allowed the glory of presenting the petition to Wilson, but suggesting that a delegation of the local workers be taken along on the occasion.

The campaign against "votes for women" will begin in earnest late this afternoon.

A huge mass meeting at a local theatre will be the opening gun of the "anti forces" under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, president of the national association opposed to woman suffrage. Mrs. John Martin, of New York, Miss Lucy Price, Miss Minnie Bronson and other s will hurl verbal volleys against votes for women.

Simultaneously with the anti-suffrage meeting, open-air meetings of the suffragists will be in full swing in the business sections of Washington.
Hundreds of advocates of "votes for women" will join the mud scarred and bedraggled New York to Washington hikers as they enter the National Capitol and following a number of receptions street meetings will be inaugurated.

The formal presentation of the suffrage letter, which the hikers carried from New York, today promised to bring to a head, the dissention between the Washington suffragettes and the hikers. Armed with a telegram from the National Suffrage Board, declaring that a committee from the "army," the Washington organization and the National organization should make the presentation.
"Gen." Rosalie Jones said she dared Miss Alice Paul to try to present it herself.

The army, refreshed, "Turkish-bathed" and in regular garments, were at lunch early, the guests of the Washington suffragettes. The "beauties" who were heralded when they began the long hike, but who lost their qualification in the long, strenuous days of the march, came back with a vengeance. In the meantime the fakirs, who had clung to the rear guard and the other camp followers, who had dribbled along for purposes of gain, disappeared to engage in the fruitful occupation of selling things to the incoming inauguration crowd.

Fight in Reichrath.

Budapest, Feb. 28.—The bitter feeling between the socialists and the church elements in the Reichrath, which has been smoldering since the fierce rioting of last December broke out unexpectedly today. Two of the members exchanged the lie in a debate and a fight started which soon became general. When the police and the military guards finally managed to restore order, a dozen deputies had been injured five seriously and were taken to hospital and may die. Later a strong guard was placed around the meeting place.

VETO OF WEBB BILL.

President Taft late this afternoon sent to Congress his veto on the Webb bill prohibiting the shipment of liquor into prohibition territory. The veto was upon the ground that the bill is clearly unconstitutional.

EXTRA TRAINS NEXT WEEK.

Washington-Virginia Railway Com- pany Will Run Trains on Five- Minute Schedules.

Superintendent Percy Clift, of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company announces that on Monday and Tuesday next the regular schedule of the road will be discarded and that trains will be run between Alexandria and Washington every five minutes, commencing at 8 a. m., and ending at midnight, or as long as extra trains are needed.

It is the intention of the company to meet all demands for transportation on these days and arrangements have been made to cater to the convenience of the traveling public.

NEW HOME READY.

National Biscuit Company to Open Their New Building Tomorrow.

The new home of the National Biscuit Company will be formally opened for business tomorrow and in the near future it is expected that its shipping department will be busy in supplying the out lying districts as well as the merchants of this city with their product.

It has been said that this agency building which is of a standard type is one of their very best establishments.

The plant is located at the corner of Washington and Wilkes street, and was built for J. Clinton Smoot by Contractor Julian D. Knight, under the supervision of Thompson and Appich.

RETROCESSION QUESTION.

President Taft Still Unable to See His Way Clear For Action.

President Taft has not yet decided as to the feasibility of directing a suit in the Supreme Court of the United States to test the constitution-ality of the action of Congress in ced-ing back to Virginia the former portion of the District of Columbia on the south side of the Potomac. When Attorney-General Wickersham was asked last night for the status of the question, he replied that no statement could be made until his report had reached Mr. Taft. At the White House it was said that the report which President Taft had asked Mr. Wickersham to prepare, had not yet been received.

The report circulated yesterday was to effect that Mr. Wickersham on Wednesday had advised the President: That the proper procedure to reacquire the territory in question would be through congressional action, and that Mr.
Taft, acting on this advice, had practically abandoned the idea of proceeding through the Supreme Court.

NEW ROAD CHARTERED.

Line Projected From Norfolk Through Yorktown to Fairfax.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday granted a charter for the construction of a new railroad, to be known as the Norfolk, Yorktown and Washington Railroad, which is it is proposed to operate between Norfolk and Fairfax, extending through Newport News, Hampton, Yorktown, and the counties of Gloucester, Middlesex, Caroline, King George, Stafford and Prince William, a distance of 156 miles. The charter authorizes a capitalization of $25,000.

The officers of the proposed road are: C. T. Hobart, president; Leon Cetelle, vice president and secretary; S. S. Pope, treasurer. The directors are Louis F. Feurstein, Louis Mans-bach, Harvey M. Dickson, W. F.
Dusch, George H. Lewis, C. T. Hobart, W. W. Terry, all of Norfolk and C. T.
Blake, of Greenburg, Pa.

Will be Built at Newport News.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Secretary of the Navy Meyer today signed the contract for the battleship Pennsylvania.
The award was made to the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Co., the lowest bidder. Their bid was $7-275,000 for the construction of hull and machinery. Armor and armament will cost about $7,000,000.

"GILDED YOUTHS" OF BROOKLYN

Serious Charges Made Against "Scions of Ex- clusive Set."

LEAVE FOR THE WEST.

Members of "Smart Set" Not Ex- pected to Return Until Storm Blows Over—Grand Jury at Work.

New York, Feb. 28.—That several indictments will result from the grand jury investigation of the debauchery of girls of tender years by a band of gilded youths of Brooklyn was considered certain today. Already a sufficient supply of evidence has been uncovered so that the jury knows just who the youths are who have been active in this nefarious practice, where they met and the houses to which they lured their victims.

As a result of the revelations to date a number of the male members of the Brooklyn "smart set" have disappeared from their usual haunts. It is said that they have "gone west for their health" and that they are not expected to return until the present investigation ends, some will hardly ever come back.

Police are watching two houses, one in the exclusive Flatbush section and the other in Gates avenue, near Bedford street, for young men who are wanted by the district attorney to question regarding certain happenings during the last few months. Automobile parties have been entertained here in the small hours of the morning coming from the so-called cabaret show places in the borough, many of which are run in the back rooms of saloons.

A list of names of young girls who have been members of the automobile parties was obtained by Assistant District Attorney Goldstein from three young women who admitted they had been members of the parties. These girls will all be interrogated by the prosecutor and if their stories warrant they will be taken before the grand jury.

Martha Kohler, daughter of Mayor Gaynor's former secretary, was too ill today to be taken before the grand jury. While she still insists that she will not give any testimony against the young real estate dealer she accused originally of luring her to a hotel, she has promised to tell all she knows about the other members of the band of gilded youths who, with the aid of their parents' cash, have successfully turned night into day.

SUIT AGAINST UTILITIES.

Gardner L. Boothe Makes Principal Argument at Today's Hearing.

The argument on the demurrers in the suit of the District of Columbia against the Washington Utilities Company, was commenced this morning in Equity Court No. 1, in Washington. The principal argument to sustain the de-murrer was made by Gardner L.
Boothe, of this city, the secretary and attorney of the Utilities Company.

Mr. Boothe outlined in detail the powers of the municipality and quoted decisions of the District Court of Appeals to show that the powers are limited. He urged that the municipal powers of the District are narrower than those of the average municipality in the states.

He explained to the court that the charter of the Utilities Company granted by the State of Virginia empowered that corporation to purchase stock of other corporations. He denied that the stock of the Washington Railway and Electric Company would be illegally increased by its purchase by the Virginia corporation. He claimed that the United States alone is empowered to question the right of the local corporation to enter into a contract to sell its stock to the Virginia holding company.

Should his company purchase the stock and then make any use of it which would injure the District, he asserted, the municipality has its full remedy in damages to be secured in a proceeding at law. The District has no standing in equity, he averred.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

On account of a funeral service at the same time, the 5 o'clock service in Grace Church will be omitted Satur- day afternoon.

The semi-annual musical of Miss M. Devitt's class was held at her studio last evening. An elaborate program was rendered.

Officials of the Southern Railway Company stated today that between 35 and 40 specials would come to Washington from southern points carrying passengers for the inauguration ceremonies.

J. M. Dobie is making a line drawing of the newly-erected Westminster Building, which will be used in the illustration of the elaborate souvenir programme which the deacons of the Second Presbyterian Church are to have printed for the opening of the new hall, which is to be held later.

VIRGINIA ANTHRACITE.

DeWilton Aitchison, the well-known coal dealer, has just received a car of Virginia anthracite coal which he has ordered as a trial. This is the first coal of this variety that has been brought to this market and if it proves a success. Mr. Aitchison will purchase other cars. He believes that it will burn much freer than the Pennsylvania hard coal and is more desirable for grates and open fire places. Its cost is less than the northern anthracite.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Two divorces were granted in the Corporation Court today, as follows: Blanche E. Morrow, from John J.
Morrow, absolute divorce; Emma Riley Nalls from Jackson N. Nalls, limited divorce.

POLICE COURT.

(Justice H. B. Caton, Presiding.)

Rozier Alexander, colored, charged with grand larceny, on Ophelia Alexander, his wife, and Alice Riddick, his mother-in-law, were sent on to the grand jury.

Nellie Jasper, Cornelia Bailey and Mary Fletcher, all colored, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5 each.

Joseph Johnson and William Trigger, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting. Johnson forfeited his collateral of $5 and Trigger was fined $5.

PREPARING FOR THE SUMMER.

Mutual Ice Company Will Receive Two Cargoes of Ice.

The schooner Clarence H. Verner has sailed from Rockport, Me., with a cargo of ice for the Mutual Ice Company of this city.

The schooner Childe Harold is loading ice at the same port for the Mutual Ice Company.

MURDER IN SECOND DEGREE.

Dennis Watkins, colored, charged with the murder of Jasper Wilkes, colored, was sentenced in the Circuit Court for Alexandria county yesterday afternoon to serve a term of ten years in the penitentiary. Watkins pleaded guilty of murder in the second degree.

The murder took place at Queen City, February 1st last. Watkins was jealous over the attention paid his wife by Wilkes.

ANNIVERSARY OF DISASTER.

The distressing accident on board the United States steam vessel Princeton, Captain Stockton, 69 years ago today, when a gun exploded and killed the secretary of the navy and a number of others who were aboard at the time. The Princeton was near Marshall Hall when the gun exploded.
The late Senator Benton was aboard the Princeton at the time, and one of the best accounts of the disaster is given in his book, "Thirty Years in the United States Senate." The senator said he was standing a few feet from the place when it exploded. He saw a glaring flash, but, strange to say, heard no report. He escaped material injury. The Princeton later passed Alexandria on her return to Washington with her flag at half-mast. President Tyler was in the ward room of the vessel when the accident occurred and was injured.

OVER TWENTY LIVES LOST IN HOTEL FIRE

Register Burned And No List of Guests Obtain- able.

TERRIBLE SCENES.

Fifty Persons Were in the Omaha Hostelry When The Fire Broke Out —Killed by Jumping.

Omaha, Neb., Feb. 28.—At 10 o'clock police and firemen estimated that over twenty lives had probably been lost in the Dewey Hotel fire early today. At that hour three bodies had been identified and it is believed that twenty were in the ruins, although the register was burned and no list of the guests is available.

The Dewey Hotel was a three story structure of brick and had formerly been five stories. The upper floors had been condemned an demolished. Owing to the age of the structure and its character, it burned like tinder.

The police estimate of the dead is made on the authority of Jesse D.
Nold, the manager, who was the last to leave the building, and who said that at least fifty people were registered there last night. At least a dozen of them were women. In addition to the dead and injured twenty persons have not been accounted for and are believed to be in the still smoldering ruins.

A complete search of the building will be necessary to establish a death list.

According to the guests who escaped the first intimation of the fire came when a woman's scream awakened them. The building was then filled with smoke and within half an hour it was in ruins. The flames spread so quickly that few could have escaped.
The flames were not entirely quenched until after 10 o'clock and it will be noon before any of the bodies can be recovered.

There are conflicting stories as to the cause of the fire.

A night watchman in a neighboring building saw sparks coming from the chimney and turned in an alarm. A drug clerk across the street declared he heard an explosion, but this is discredited.

The futile attempt to drown the flames was hindered by poor pressure and the cold weather. Two nozzlemen, standing at the rear of the building, directing their stream on the flames, were unable to remove their hands from the hose. Ice had formed on the handles and encased their hands.

Died of Poisoning.

Paris, Feb. 28.—An autopsy today showed that Carouy, the auto bandit, who committed suicide after being sentenced to life imprisonment, died of cyanide of potassium poisoning.
An investigation showed that Carouy had concealed the poison in his shoe.

CONTEST CLOSES TOMORROW.

Send in Your Names of the Five Prominent Persons Tonight.

The Gazette's second portrait contest will close tomorrow morning when the five tickets to Chassee Theatre will be awarded. While there have been a large number of replies received there have been few correct answers as two of the pictures are rather difficult. If you have not already sent an answer look up yesterday's Gazette and send as your guess, last of all.
Answers must be received not later than 9 o'clock tomorrow morning in order to receive consideration. The winning theatre tickets will be mailed on Monday.

There was a large gathering of relatives last evening at the home of Mr. William H. Hellmuth, on north Alfred street in honor of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hellmuth, of Colorado Springs, Colorado. During the evening songs and instrumental music were rendered and refreshments were served.

Mr. C. R. Van Aelstyn is seriously ill at his home on south Fairfax street.

Mr. James Stafford, of Washington, and Miss Osceola F. Hamersley, of this city, were married Wednesday evening at Grace Church, Rev. Edgar Carpenter, officiating. Mr. Stafford is a nephew of the late Rev. Dr. Stafford, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. W. E. and Mrs. Isabel Hamersley. A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, 1108 King street. Mr. Stafford is employed in the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in Washington.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

Alexandria Division of the Ancient Order of Hebernians are completing arrangements for the annual celebration of St. Patrick's Day. The exercises, which will be of a public character, will be held in St. Mary's Hall. M. J. McFarland, secretary of the local division, has received a box of Shamrocks from the Sisters of Mercy, County Mayo, Ireland, which will be distributed to the members of the order at the next meeting.

SENT TO THE GRAND JURY.

Negro Charged With Stealing Two-Hundred Dollars' Worth of Articles.

William Hymal, of the Mt. Vernon Stables, on North St. Asaph street, has for sometime been aware of the fact that goods have been taken from an upper story of the stables, and early last night notified the police when means were at once instituted to ferret out the thieves. Suspicion pointed to Rosier Alexander, colored, who had been employed at the stables, and Chief Goods, Sergeant Wilkinson and Officer Roland, having procured search warrants, proceeded to Alexander's house, 432 south Columbus street. They were not long in finding stolen articles which filled three trunks, and valued at about $200.

Alexander was taken in custody and the trunks removed to the station house where they and their contents were identified by their owner.

Alexander frankly acknowledged the theft. The police also searched the house of Alice Riddicks, Alexander's mother-in-law, who resides on Princess street, and found sundry articles which were identified by Mr. Hymal.

Alexander's wife, Ophelia Alexander, and mother-in-law were brought into the Police Court this morning, and after the testimony had been heard Alexander assumed all responsibility for the thefts and alleged that his wife and mother-in-law were innocent and in no way particeps. Justice Caton held the three for the action of the grand jury.

MRS. BONTZ'S FUNERAL.
The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Bontz was held this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence of William H. Bontz, on North Columbus street. Services were conducted by Rev. H. M. Canter, of the Southern Methodist Church, and interment was made in the old Methodist cemetery.

ROLLERSKATING ISSUE.

Citizens Appear Before Committee on General Laws and Streets Last Night.

About twenty-five persons, some of whom were women, appeared last night before the committee on general laws and streets in the City Hall for the purpose of giving their views on the rollerskating pastime a sport which has become general in Alexandria since modern roadways and sidewalks have been constructed. The diversion has become so annoying to many people that they have petitioned Council to pass an ordinance forbidding such diversions upon sidewalks. Elmer Timberman, C. H. Callahan, M. Ruben, Wm. Davis, Stewart J. Simpson, J. T. Haring, Edgar Warfield, P. J. Dempsey and several ladies entered their protest against a continuance of the sport in front of their property. They described the annoyance incident to the pastime, and alleged that the sidewalks were being scratched and damaged.

Howard T. Colvin and Ashby Bladen spoke against the enactment of the law. Mr. Colvin presented the following preamble and resolutions recently adopted by the Alexandria Trades Council in reference to the matter.

Whereas, there has been filed with the City Council a petition for the passage of an ordinance prohibiting the children of our city from skating with roller skates on the sidewalks, and

Whereas, we do not believe there is ordinance would especially affect the children of the working people of the city, and

Whereas, we do not believe there is any considerable demand for the passage of an ordinance prohibiting this healthful and comparatively harmless amusement, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Alexandria Trades Council, representing the organized workers of Alexandria and vicinity should and does hereby enter its protest against the passage of such an ordinance, and be it further

Resolved, That a representative of this body be appointed to appear at the next regular meeting of the Committee on Streets of the City Council, having this matter under consideration, and protest on behalf of the working people, against the passage of such an ordinance.

Adopted February 24, 1913.

FIGHT AT A BALL.

Sergeant Bettis and Officers Nicholson and Kern last night made a descent upon several colored women who were engaged in a fight at Odd Fellows' Hall, on south Columbus street. They captured Nellie Jasper, Cornelia Bailey and Mary Fletcher, and escorted them to the station house. The Fletcher woman had emerged from the conflict second best, and she was bleeding profusely from a wound on the head. The trio were brought before the Police Court this morning and fined $5 each.

DEATH OF MISS HOUSE.

Miss Louise W. House died at her home on north Columbus street this morning. The deceased was a daughter of the late Charles H. House. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. George C. Peyton.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

BOTH WORKING QUIETLY.

Both Sides of Liquor Question Are Keeping Mum.

Danville, Va., February 28.—The petitions circulated by the prohibition faction in this city calling for a local election have not as yet been presented to Judge Peatross, although more than 25 per cent of the voters in the last election have signed the paper. The petitions, it is understood, will be presented at a time deemed the most advisable by the leaders of that faction.

During the past several days rumors have been current in the city regarding all phases of the election. One of those more prominently prominent was that the "dry" faction had decided to withhold the election until an effort had been made to carry the State "dry." This, however, was flatly discredited by a man prominent among the prohibitionists, who expressed the opinion that such a plan was never dreamed of, and that the fight would undoubtedly come today.

Both factions are working diligently and quietly and are not showing their cards. Both J. Schoolfield and J. Gibson have declared recently that they "have nothing to say."

BURNED TO DEATH.

Destroys Small House in Henrico County.

Confined to his bed by sickness, Richard Dandridge, an elderly negro, was on Wednesday burned to a crisp by a fire which destroyed his home in Henrico County, at an early hour. The man was alone at the time, and the origin of the fire is unknown.

An investigation was held yesterday afternoon by Coroner J. Fulmer. He arrived at the conclusion that the death was purely accidental, and granted the necessary burial permit. It was shown that the negro had been sick for some time and was practically helpless. It is thought that a lamp was overturned by him, as the fire evidently started near his bed. His charred body was dragged from the burning building by neighbors.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Discharged Railway Engineer Kills Himself And Roanoke Woman.

Roanoke, Va., Feb. 28.—Dave Linkenhoker, who was discharged from his position as engineer on the Shenandoah division two weeks ago by the Norfolk and Western Railway because of continued drinking and bad habits, yesterday evening, about 6 o'clock, shot and instantly killed Mrs. Warren Painter, wife of another engineer, and then turned his revolver against himself, instantly blowing out his brains. The tragedy occurred on Commerce street, S. W., between Eighth and Ninth avenues, the heart of Roanoke's fashionable residential section, and threw the city into tremendous excitement, coming as a sequel to the Hylan-Joyce tragedy Monday morning.

Linkenhoker and Mrs. Painter are said to have been intimate in their relations, but the immediate cause of the dual killing is not yet known. Both were middle aged, being between 40 and 50 years of age.

Linkenhoker leaves a wife and five children and Mrs. Painter is survived by a husband and seven children.

DANGEROUS NEGRO IN JAIL.

For Months He Had Been Sought by Authorities.

Appomattox, Va., Feb. 28.—Morton Hamlet, a negro gunman and robber, has been brought here by Sheriff Frank McKinney and lodged safely in the Appomattox jail. He was arrested in Lynchburg by four policemen, and had been sought after for the past three months.

In the early fall the negro came to the home of Mr. Evans, an elderly man in the county, one Sunday morning soon after breakfast and asked for something to eat, which Mr. Evans granted. When he had finished his breakfast he drew his pistol, and uttering an oath, demanded Mr. Evans' money. Mr. Evans handed him the change. But this failing to satisfy the negro, he demanded more, whereupon Mr. Evans produced a bank certificate for $200, which he gave him. In the meantime, he shot Mr. Evans and wounded him severely in his hand, and terribly frightened his daughter, who was the only member of his family with the old man.

An alarm was given and a posse with bloodhounds pursued him till darkness overtook them, having captured one or two suspects, but the culprit escaped.

Sheriff McKinney very diligently advertised and worked secretly for the arrest of the negro, but to no avail till a few days ago, when he was spied by the Lynchburg police and promptly nabbed. A reward of $300 had been offered for him.

A long knife was found in his possession. He was once a convict, having served seven years in the penitentiary.

DOG BUTTS IN AT WEDDING.

Tries to Tear Coat From the Back of an Usher.

Cape Charles, Va., Feb. 28.—The butting in of a dog was the cause of consternation during a marriage ceremony in the Baptist Church of Eastville yesterday. The animal dashed wildly into the edifice while the bride and groom were marching to the altar and sprang upon the back of Arthur Addison, one of the ushers, grabbed his coat between its teeth and was making efforts to tear the garment from his back. The wedding party was thrown into a panic and the whole church was in an uproar, many of the women leaving, thinking the animal was suffering from rabies. The dog was finally forced to release its hold and was ejected.

It developed that the dress suit worn by the victim of the dog's teeth had been borrowed from its master. The animal had wandered into its master's room and, taking a scent of the missing clothing, followed it into the church and made the attack. The incident occurred during the marriage ceremony of Harry Roberts to Miss Mabel Hemming, a daughter of Rev. Ernest Hemming. The dog is a setter and the property of C. T. Cobb, of Eastville.

EXPERTS WILL DISAGREE.

Commissioners Mix Again on Troublesome Potomac Rivalries.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 28.—Although the joint oyster commission, composed of scientific representatives from Maryland, Virginia and the United States Department of Agriculture, has agreed to make a third investigation and analyses of Potomac river oysters about March 12, there is promise of nothing but disagreement when the time comes for the preparation of the final report of the investigations. Whatever the conclusions reached in the formal report of the commission, there is sure to be a minority report, differing in toto from the findings of the official document.

On the two previous investigating trips down the Potomac the Commissioners have disagreed wonderfully on the interpretation to be placed upon the presence of certain bacilli in the river bivalves. The first trip was made by the commission in September, and when the commissioners met in Washington several weeks later to compare the results of their separate analyses and draw conclusions, almost as many opinions as there are commissioners were expressed. The same lack of harmony attended the investigation made in December. In the main, the commissioners' chemical and bacteriological analyses agreed, but each had his own interpretation of the meaning of the analyses.

Having taken tests in the fall and winter, the commission plans to take a third test in the spring and possibly a fourth about July. This will give reliable analyses of oysters for every season of the year, and add weight to the final report which the commission is to render. There is little prospect that the written findings of the commission will be ready for publication before summer, although it may be decided to give out the results after the March tests.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid. WASH THE GERMS OUT. Example: Use a compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This constitutes the true cure.

CELEBRATION OF THE TREATY OF GHENT.

The celebration of the treaty of Ghent which will take place next year is an event which should be observed at this time, when the English-speaking people enjoy a better understanding and are more closely allied than ever. But the occasion will bring to the minds of some people interesting chapters in the diplomatic affairs of England and the United States during the past century. While to many school boys the wars with Great Britain may appear as crushing defeats upon the British in every battle, the student of history is aware of the fact that victory did not always perch upon the banners of our forefathers.

The issue which caused the United States to cross swords the second time with the mother country was of a vital nature. When a popular vote in England showed that a majority of Englishmen were averse to continuing the war against the colonists and George the Third was compelled to acknowledge the United States as an independent power, some Britons, especially the leaders of the nation, determined at an opportune time to resume control of their former North American possessions. When the British were about to evacuate Boston they placed their flag upon a pole which they had previously greased and the warships saluted it as they passed out of the harbor. The English sailors yelled back, "never mind, we'll get you yet."

The year 1812 was regarded as an opportune time to carry out this threat, and the British ships began the work of stopping peaceable American merchant ships upon the high seas and taking men therefrom and impressing them as British sailors. These outrages were kept up until the Americans found themselves up against this proposition—either to fight again or submit to the British yoke.

War was declared on the ground that Great Britain had no right to search and take men from a ship of a neutral nation.

Hostilities began and neither side for some time made any material progress. Later, however, the British made their way up the Potomac, captured Alexandria and finally burned the capital at Washington. When peace terms were finally signed at Ghent the vital issue upon which this country went to war was left open, England refusing to acknowledge she had no authority to stop American vessels. This country was in no condition to force her demands at that time, and England's right to search vessels of this country and take persons therefrom had not been renounced in 1861, when the war between the states began.

William H. Seward, who was then secretary of state, a wily diplomat, it is generally believed, played a trick upon the British foreign office by ordering Captain Wilkes of the United States steamer San Jacinto, to stop the British mail steamer Trent in the Bahama channel and take therefrom Messrs. Mason and Slidell, Confederate States commissioners. Of course, Great Britain made an immediate demand for their release and that an apology be made for the act. When the British minister interviewed Mr. Seward concerning the matter, the secretary naturally asked him upon what ground he made his demand. The representative of her Britannic majesty replied that it was upon the ground that the United States had no right to commit such an act upon a vessel of a neutral country.

Mr. Seward, whose game was working satisfactorily, observed that if the United States had no such privilege he could not, of course, claim it for the government he represented. The Briton, who had fallen into the trap was forced to acknowledge that England had no such right. Before the interview ended an understanding was reached by which it was agreed that in future the United States would not molest British ships while the British government renounced any such right concerning vessels of this country.

An issue which had faced our nation for many years was thus closed without shedding a drop of blood. Mason and Slidell were delivered up to Great Britain.

While the exercises in connection with the celebration of the treaty of Ghent are being celebrated a huge portrait of William H. Seward should be placed in the hall in respect to his memory and the great work he performed in setting an issue which the American arms were unable to accomplish in 1812-1814.

Incendiary Sentenced.

New York, Feb. 28.—A sentence of not less than 12 years and 6 months and more than 22 years and 6 months was today imposed by Justice Goff on George Grutz, chief of the arson trust which is declared to have milked the insurance companies of $100,000 by incendiary fires in this city during the past five years. Grutz was last week convicted of causing a fire at 516 East 135th street on which he secured an insurance of $2,000.

Robert J. Rubin, an associate of Grutz, also convicted, was to have been sentenced today but on motion of Assistant District Attorney Willard sentence was indefinitely deferred so that he can repeat a confession he has made to the grand jury. This confession, it is said, involves twenty additional men.

Charge Against a Woman.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Addie L. Davis, young and pretty, is held by the federal authorities accused of violating the U. S. postal laws. The charge was made by her sister, Miss Ollie Nestor, who alleges Mrs. Davis opened a letter addressed to her by mistake, and because the two had quarreled, did not turn over five dollar enclosed.

Injured in Collision.

Cheshire, Conn., Feb. 28.—Many persons were slightly bruised and cut but none seriously injured when a passenger trolley car on the Waterbury to New Haven route crashed into a freight car loaded with brick near here today. The entire front of the passenger car was telescoped and passengers were piled up indiscriminately, most of them school teachers, en route to New Haven.

Police Graft in New York.

New York, Feb. 28.—Police life in New York is one graft scandal after another according to developments today. District Attorney Whitman, after touching the edges of the gambling-disorderly house-police alliance struck a new lead when he called in his office John Mustard, of 1 Manhattan avenue, president of one of the district organizations of the liquor dealers of Manhattan. Mustard is declared to know all about the assessments on members of his organization whereby the enormous total of $1,200,000 was extorted for the benefit of the police ring.

This graft was paid for the purpose of permitting saloons to run their back rooms and side-doors wide open on Sunday. And this money the district attorney believes went directly through headquarters to a very powerful clique of politicians whose sources of income has always been a profound mystery.

Mustard's story will be guarded by the prosecutor but it is expected that it will do more toward cleaning up the general situation than anything yet developed. Heretofore, the police graft, so far as the illegal resorts were concerned, has been to be centralized in the police department. The saloon graft, however, is expected to go much further.

SMILES.

By The Second Ward Bard.

MA'S A SUFFRAGETTE.

Pa is washing dishes, Daughter's drying clothes, Son is darning stockings by the score, Little Brother's dusting, it's a task he always lothes, Grand-dad's sweeping up the kitchen floor, Still they have to do it, there's no use to fret, Things ain't like they used to be,
Ma's a suffragette.

One night, Ma, a year ago, put on her best dress And went to hear Miss Mary Johnston speak, Now we rustle for our meals, and, as you will guess, All the family's got quite mild and meek,
And you see it must be so, for Ma is boss, you bet,
We don't smile much anymore, Ma's a suffragette.

Ma has joined the army that is marching down On its way to see the President
All the way to Washington from old New York town, On getting votes those women folks are bent,
And it makes no difference if her feet get cold or wet, She can suffer hardships now, Ma's a suffragette.

Pa is coming over, too, to hear her point of view,
And we cannot help but think it's right For him to agree with her. What else can he do?
The poor man gets no rest by day or night,
So we make the beds and dust and shine the china-set, Ma is on a hiking trip, Ma's a suffragette.

It is tar and feathers for that official weather guy, if he misses his guess for Tuesday.

After all there's one Democrat in town who isn't a candidate for the postmastership. He wants to be Clerk of the Court.

If City Council passes that ordinance prohibiting the showing of moving pictures of crimes, Briton will simply stand to lose out on the prize, and that's all there is about it. These amendments (and I repeat, they may be all right, but if there is anything in this world we don't put in, it is not violence and bloodshed.

He walks the streets so grand,
All the ladies declare
That the best in the land.

Handsome, bold, a terror to Every thing and thief, He's our splendid Charley Goods, He's our little chief.

Witness Against Husband.

Mrs. Marie Francis Russell, who is separated from her husband, "Pastor" Russell of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, was a witness against her husband yesterday at a hearing before the city commission in Brooklyn. Pastor Russell is claiming exemption from taxation of his many publications and business enterprises on the ground that all his activities are philanthropic and religious.

Mrs. Russell, who obtained a separation from her husband on the ground that he treated her cruelly, said that when Pastor Russell started the Zion Watch Tower Society in Pittsburgh she was entirely in his confidence as his principal aid. She said he sold membership in the society at $10 each, and that at the last election in Pittsburgh, of which she had knowledge, 50,000 membership votes were cast, indicating that the society had taken in $500,000.

Pastor Russell, so his wife testified, also had William Van Amberg, secretary and treasurer of most of the concerns under the Russell management, buy land near Pittsburgh for a cemetery at a cost of many thousands of dollars. The stock of the cemetery was sold to the pious. The cemetery company was merged into the United States Investment Company, a holding corporation for Russell, under a contract which stipulated that only 10 per cent of the profits of the cemetery should go to the cemetery corporation stockholders, and that 90 per cent should go to the United States Investment Company.

Secretary Van Amberg said that his salary from the Russell concerns was only $11 a month. He could get work at a better salary elsewhere, he said, but staid with Pastor Russell, "because he loved the work."

Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long at this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles."

Often I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint. I took Cardul, and it helped me immediately. Now I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardul when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardul is a strength building tonic medicine for women. It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardul acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands. Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardul. He will recommend it.

VEGETABLES ARE CHEAP.

Market is Well Supplied With Produce From Southern Growers.

With the return of warmer weather, fresh green vegetables are becoming very plentiful, all the vegetables and grocers selling these commodities have a good supply of all kinds for this week. Prices will be about the same as last week. Ripe tomatoes from the south are selling at 15 cents a pound, two pounds for 25 cents. There is an abundance of new cabbage at 5 cents a pound and new beets are plentiful. New celery at 5 to 8 cents a bunch, and spring onions 2 and 3 for 5 cents. In fact all vegetables very reasonable in price.

Florida oranges have gone up slightly, prices ranging from 25 cents a dozen to 40 cents. There are some fine home-dressed turkeys. Prices are from 30 to 35 cents a pound. Chickens are firm, no change in prices over last week. The best country butter has gone up. Eggs have increased in price, on account of the inauguration, increasing the demand. It has produced a very firm market, prices holding up and very likely will be sustained during the week.

The meat market is now very favorable in the quantity and quality of the meats offered, most excellent beef, fine pork and good eating veal being on sale. While prices have been higher on account of the inauguration, which tends to create a great demand, it is certain the housewife will find her favorite meat on sale at a reasonable price.

There is a good demand for ready cooked meats and luncheon meats. During the inauguration, people prefer to purchase sausage and ham and cooked meats such as will cause them least trouble in the preparation of lunches. Dealers are displaying some very choice cooked tongue and ham just now.

New York—Strike breakers housed in the factories of the clothing manufacturers who have refused to sign the union agreement deserted in large number today following one bomb explosion and the throwing of another which failed to go off.

Dr. Friedman's Cure.

New York, Feb. 28.—A definite announcement as to arrangements for the treatment of tuberculosis victims by Dr. Frederick Friedman, the young German now here with his purported cure, was expected today. Selection of a suit of offices will be made, and laboratory secured where Dr. Friedman may produce the cultures which he believes will prove to be an effective treatment for tuberculosis.

Dr. Friedman has declared that he is extremely anxious to get to work. He will not permit himself to be drawn into any controversy with local physicians as to the value of his "cure" declaring that the treatments must speak for themselves. He delivered a short address before the meeting of the New York Physicians' Association last night but he did not go into the details as to his discovery.

Letters and telegrams from rich and poor alike, seeking information as to when he would start giving treatments poured in on Friedman today. Although it has been repeatedly announced that the physician would not receive patients at his hotel, still relatives or friends of victims of the white plague spend hours in the hotel corridor in hopes of having just a word with the young German.

One man whose wife is a victim of tuberculosis, managed to reach the doctor yesterday. He only wished to shake his hand, and with tears in his eyes, he told Friedman of his wife's affliction. He was assured that she would be given every attention as soon as the treatments were started.

Woman Sentenced to Die.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 28.—Mrs. Freida Hartman Trost, the "heartless widow," convicted of murder in the first degree last December, on the charge of murdering her husband, was today sentenced to die on the gallows by Judges in the Quarter Sessions Court. Request for a new trial was refused, and counsel for the woman immediately served notice that an appeal would be taken to the State Supreme Court. The execution will take place on a date to be set by the governor.

Mrs. Trost was adjudged guilty by a jury after a brief trial in which the prosecution alleged that Mrs. Trost had administered poison to her bridegroom husband in order to obtain his property which she had persuaded him to will over to her.

Dorr to Appeal.

Salem, Mass., Feb. 28.—Hope of a successful appeal to the Supreme Court today buoyed up William A. Dorr, of Stockton, California, found guilty yesterday of murdering George E. Marsh, the Lynn, millionaire. In his cell here Dorr maintained the same composure which he showed throughout the trial.

"I expected to be acquitted, but I would rather die in the electric chair than spend the rest of my days in prison," he said.

We have been telling you for many weeks up and find it sleeping and raining and generally disagreeable and also discover that you had not heeded the warning and fortified yourself against it. Now as the ground hog has seen his shadow we are liable to have many days like this. Secure rubbers for yourself and the little ones—and in getting them, get the best—Gold Seal—sold by John A.

An ordinance of Richmond, Virginia, imposing a license tax upon private bankers and "Loan Sharks" at a higher rate was declared valid today by the Supreme Court in the test suit brought by F. S. Bradley, of Richmond.

New York—Hubert and Mabel Hassler newly weds, will hike for five years to win $5,000 from an athletic club of Jackson, Miss. She will eat meat and he will stick to vegetable diet.

MUSTEROLE No Plaster! No Blister!

Everybody knows how the good old fashioned mustard plaster relieves a cold, an ache or a pain.

Your mother and your grandmother always applied it. The plaster burned awfully. But it surely brought relief.

MUSTEROLE is the same remedy without the plaster and without the blister. MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. You don't have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone!

Not a blister is left, even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chills, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents pneumonia). Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually. It is a staple in the large hospitals. Doctors and nurses use it to patients. Ask your doctor.

At your drug-gist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

If your drug-gist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar postpaid.

Doctors tell How Musterole Relieves.

Dr. J. P. Frey, Chicago, Ill., says: "I prescribe your Musterole every day. Use it in all cases of alveolar abscess and inflammation."
